

THE COSMIC ADVENTURES OF

BINKY & ZOINK

BINKY & ZOINK GO HOME

AS TOLD TO ALAN NOLAN

Hello every-blobby!

I'm Zoink and together with my twin sister Binky, we have travelled from outer space to check out the planet Earth.

From time to time we send reports home to our planet of Alpha-Ba-Na-Na.

Binky was sending a report when a cross face popped up on the screen.

It was General Tra-Lah-Lah, our MUM!

“You must come home now!” Mum said,

“Your dinner is ready!”

Binky didn't want to go home.

Mum always made mashed bananas for dinner and Binky had become very fond of Earth ice cream.

She stamped one of her seven feet and made a cross face of her own.

Binky is SO like Mum!

We tried to pack up our spaceship,
the Millennium Dodo, with all the great stuff we got here on Earth:
books and DVDs, jumpers and lots and lots and lots of socks
for our many feet.

We also packed in a huge freezer, stacked from bottom to top with yummy, scrummy ice cream.

Yum!

Binky and I will both miss ice cream when we go home to Alpha-Ba-Na-Na.

We waved goodbye to our new Earth friends.

Binky sat in the pilot's seat and tried to start the Millennium Dodo's engine, but it wouldn't start.

“Uh-oh,” she said, “I think we are out of power!”

The nice librarian in the library
let us plug in the Millennium Dodo to recharge the engine.

It will take the rest of the summer
to recharge enough to get us back to Alpha-Ba-Na-Na...

...but Binky and I don't mind!

We are happy to be staying on Earth for a few weeks, to play with our new friends, and to go to the library and read lots and lots of books!
